

Sapienza in International Development. Strategies Projects Initiatives

Every two years Sapienza organizes a conference dedicated to development cooperation. This year we were thinking about organizing it at the end of November when we received the proposal of organizing the SPHERE Conference in Rome. At this point we thought it would have been interesting to link the two events, because the topics are somehow correlated.

The 11th of December, indeed, will be dedicated to the presentation of the projects that Sapienza is leading or partnering in the whole world within the frame of development cooperation, with a special emphasis on capacity building actions in the 4 main geographical areas identified as: Africa, Mena countries and Latin America and Asia. The event will focus on development cooperation strategies and policies of Sapienza with the intervention as well of the Development Cooperation Agency of our Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Sapienza professors, researchers and students will present cooperation activities and projects in in the field of cooperation development.

We would deeply appreciate an intervention of the EU on topics such as capacity building and its impact on educational reforms and serve as Chair in one of the sessions included in the program.

In the afternoon we will welcome the participants of the SPHERE conference, who will be able to get more familiar with Sapienza's activities in the field of cooperation development. There will be other participants from the world of development cooperation in Italy, and also students will take part in the event.
